SUNDAY'S NEWS.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Tuesday morning the various Roman Catholic Associations will assemble at St. Patrick's Church to hear a panegyric on the Saint by Father Kain, of Harper's Ferry, Va.

The procession to Georgetown will be under the escort of the Knights of Columbkill, and on the way will be reviewed by President Grant, as usual on such occasions.

The procession will halt at St. Ann's Infant Asylum to afford an opportunity of making donations to that institution—the children presenting their boxes for contributions. In the evening John Mitchell will deliver a lecture on the men of Tipperary, after which there will be a St. Patrick dinner.

John E. Michener has been reinstated to his place in the dead letter office.

Judge Dent is sinking.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 15.—A bloody tragedy was enacted in Brooklyn this morning. A watchman named Delany, without any quarrel whatever, and while, it is stated, perfectly sober, attacked his wife with a hatchet and beat her head into a shapeless mass. The assassin then cut his own throat, almost severing his head from his body. His wife lingers on the point of death without the slightest hope of recovery. A son ten years of age states that there was no quarrel, and the first he knew of it was blood spouting over him from his father's wound.

The schooner Palms, from Jacksonville for Warwick, is ashore on Saw and Pigs, and will probably be a total wreck. The crew were saved.

Arrived—Mississippi, South Carolina, New Orleans, City of Richmond.

A large meeting of Communists voted last night to celebrate the anniversary of the uprising of the Commune in Paris on next Wednesday evening by a ball and banquet at the Germania rooms. Large accessions are reported to their ranks.

The first services in the First Reformed Episcopal Church, Right Reverend Bishop Cummins as Rector, were held this morning. Bishop Cummins stated that negotiations were in progress to secure a church for worship, which, he expected, would be concluded about the first of May.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, March 15.—John R. McLean, one of the proprietors of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was sent to jail to-day by Judge Marcant in the Police Court, for persisting in refusing to answer questions propounded to him yesterday. The case before the court was one in which Thomas Quinn and ex-Judge Hoffer were plaintiffs, and Schonders, engineer of the Water Works, defendant. The charge was libel, in causing publications affecting the plaintiff's character. McLean was asked who gave the information upon the publication was based, and refused to answer.

SUNDAY SCRAPS.

NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—The jury in the case of the Grant parish prisoners, not agreeing upon a verdict, were locked up until Monday.

BOSTON, March 15.—Upon the arrival of Mr. Laurens' remains in Dorshall, Senator Anthony made a brief but feeling address, committing them to the State of Massachusetts. Governor Washburn briefly responded.

CHARLESTON, March 15.—Arrived—Georgia, Batchelor, Brave, A. B. Perry, L. A. Edwards.

Cleared—Missouri, Screamer.

HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, March 15.—The Captain of the ship Marlboro, which arrived yesterday, reports that on the 10th instant she saw a bark of about six hundred tons bearing down upon her under two lower topsails with her ensign union down and an urgent signal on her mizen topmast head and burning tar barrels. She had a large crew on her deck and a boat was ready for launching. I was unable to render assistance on account of a heavy sea running. The bark came within half a mile of Marlboro, when her foremast went by the board. It was blowing a hurricane all night. The bark was last seen lying with her head to the northward. The next morning, when the weather moderated, I endeavored to find the disabled vessel, but could see nothing of her; could not make out her name; she was painted dark green, with white painted ports; she had a square stern, square white house aft, and also house forward.

Monday's Noon News.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—This being Monday, a large number of bills were introduced and referred.

SENATE.

No session of the Senate.

ATTEMPTED MURDER AND SUICIDE.

LOUISVILLE, March 16.—Henry Moss and Barney Moloncamp, neighbors and brothers-in-law, living in Lewis county, Kentucky, had a quarrel, during which Moss procured a pistol and shot Moloncamp's wife, inflicting a fatal wound. Moss then blew out his own brains.

FIVE THOUSAND TICKETS ALREADY ISSUED.

NEW YORK, March 16.—A Herald special from London, dated the 15th, says that the influx of French visitors is enormous. Tickets distributed for the celebration at Chiselhurst already exceed 5,000. Among the numberless presents, the Queen sent from Windsor a flag and the Order of the Garter, and also a brass plate with an inscription to be placed over the Emperor's sarcophagus. The programme for Monday is as follows:

Mass at 11 o'clock. Reception at the Camden House from 1 to 5 o'clock. Address to be read by the Duke of Padona, to which the Prince Imperial will reply.

Reports from Paris express fears of a demonstration of a change in the electoral law and the distress among the working classes will have a tendency to favor the cause of the Imperial Prince.

The Executive Committee named in the call for a mass meeting in Cooper Institute to give public expression to opinions on the national finances have decided that among the speakers to be invited to send invitations to Charles Francis Adams, Lyman Trumbull, Governor John A. Dix, Francis Kernan, William M. Evarts, Charles O'Connor, William Cullen Bryant, A. T. Stewart, Wm E. Dodge, S. B. Crittenden, A. T. Low, Geo. Opdyke and E. L. Jaffray.

It was decided that the meeting should be non-partisan in character, but that all political parties should be represented among the speakers and officers.

CUBA.

HAVANA, March 16.—A letter says that the first band of volunteers to Nuevistas has met insurgents and has been worsted. Upon their arrival at Nuevistas they found the railroad leading to Puerto Principe cut, and attempted to march to the latter place when they were attacked by the Cubans losing twenty-five men killed and seventy wounded, when the remainder retreated to Nuevistas.

The Cubans in this city (New York) have information of an uprising of the slaves on the sugar estates in the district of Mariel, about forty-five miles from Havana, and in the neighborhood of Bolfia Honda. The uprising began on the estates of one Jaquerie, fomented by the poor planters, who are under the impression that if the slaves should rise in their vicinity the Spanish authorities would feel bound to arm the whites to maintain peace at home, and thereby prevent them from being sent to fight in the eastern portion of the Island. The Captain General has ordered troops into the vicinity of the trouble.

HEAVY SNOW STORM.

SALT LAKE CITY, March 16.—Reports from the line of the Pacific Railroad state that a heavy snow storm with high wind prevailed to-day all along the line from Alto to points east of Elko. Cuts recently cleared out are rapidly filling. Trains due at Ogden to-morrow are now 20 hours late, with no prospect of getting through before Tuesday.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

LONDON, March 16.—The steamship Tacoma while on a voyage from Alexandria, Egypt, for Algiers, having as passengers 278 pilgrims returning from Mecca, encountered a terrific gale. One huge wave struck the vessel and washed overboard 117 of the pilgrims, and all were drowned.

Advices from Rio Janeiro reports that the Bishop of Pernambuco has been sentenced to four year's imprisonment for continued resistance to the laws of the State.

The Highlanders, returning from the Ashantee war, have arrived at St. Vincent.

It was the steamer Queen Elizabeth from Calcutta for Glasgow, that was lost off Tariffa with 14 lives, and not the Glasgow.

A Time's dispatch announces that the Palmo Minister of the Ashantee King, and his Captain General were brought prisoners to Cape Coast Castle.

Bismarck is better.

It is reported that the stowaways, which the City of New York carried back to Havana, when the steamer was twelve miles at sea was condemned to be shot.

MADRID, March 16.—Marshal Serrano, with an army of 34,000 and ninety pieces of artillery, is now face to face with a Carlist force of 31,000, while Gen. Loma, with a column of 8,000 strong, is moving on the enemy's rear.

ATLANTA DAILY SUN

TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 1874.

Brevities.

In Utah a criminal condemned to death may choose whether he will be shot or hanged.

The first patent granted in America was to S. Hopkins, in 1790, for a process of making pot and pearl ashes.

Count Waldeck, the painter who has just attained the great age of 108, resides in Paris, and is still in excellent health.

Henry W. Longfellow, Edward L. Pierce, and Francis V. Balch are the executors of Senator Sumner's will.

"Why do you use paint?" asked a violinist of his daughter. "For the same reason that you use rosin, papa." "How is that?" "Why, to help me draw my bow."

Rector's daughter (to Sunday school scholar)—"Oh, you have an elder brother; well, how old is he?" School boy—"Dunno, Miss, but he just started o' swearing."

It is said that the publishers of Webster's and Worcester's great English dictionaries, will pay five dollars to any one discovering a typographical error in either of those colossal works.

The report of the New York savings banks states that forty per cent. of the population of that city are regular depositors, and that their deposits average three hundred dollars each.

John G. Whittier, who has always persistently refused to sit for a portrait, recently yielded to a Boston artist, and the result is said to be the only satisfactory portrait of the Quaker poet in existence.

A Pekin, Illinois, woman was asked by the preacher if her husband feared the Lord. She replied: "Fear him? Bless you, he is so feared of Him that he never goes out Sunday without taking his gun along with him."

A gushing patriot in Ohio announces that, Providence permitting, he will stand for Justice of the Peace at the ensuing election in January next. This determination is in response to a petition from his nephew and a private letter from his wife's mother.

Strapped shoes, it is said, will be "the thing" in the spring; made in satin to match the light tints of dresses; the straps cut very narrow, and extending not only over the instep, but upon the ankles. Some are finished with small pearl buttons.

A gathering of all the anti-Butler Radical leaders in Massachusetts has been called at the Hub to consult on "how best to squelch the beast." The brethren are on the anxious benches of this issue, and each one of them has a bell for the cat, if he can only get it on—but that's the point.

Dick Holland, of Cincinnati, had an impulse of generosity in coming home from the New Orleans carnival, and gave up his sleeping car berth to an invalid. The fact that during the night an engine in the rear ran into the train and mangled the invalid, has made Dick self-denying for life.

For the ten years ending January, 1874, the average price of grain in the New York market was as follows: Wheat, $1 70; price now, $1 65. Rye $1 18; now, $1 00. Corn, $1 08; now 84 cents. Hay, $1 13 per cwt; now, $1 00. Butter, 39 cents; now, 36 cents Cheese, 16 1-2 cents; now, 14 3-4 cents.

The employment of velocipedes by commissionaires in France has led to the formation of a company or society to supply these locomotives on credit, like sewing machines, clothing, and pianos, repayable by instalments. Experience has found that such messengers outstrip cabs, and indeed perhaps the telegraph itself and postal cards. Strong and light young porters, provided with a lacon of good oil in their vest pocket, can turn twenty francs a day, nearly as much as a deputy, and far more than a first-class Government clerk, a captain on full pay, or a clergyman earns.

☞ The Ohio Senate has enacted that every Buckeye must hereafter scratch the straight ticket with ink if he wishes it to be potent in the count.

☞ News has been received by Jefferson Davis' friends, in Memphis, that, on his arrival in London, he was suffering greatly from dropsy of the heart. Further news will be awaited with anxiety.

☞ The Washington Chronicle calls the recent duel near Augusta a sketch "after the old masters." If it had added, in charcoal or lamp-black, the simile would have been complete, says the Nashville Union and American.

☞ The crusaders are coming nearer. Last Saturday they laid siege to the saloons of Tullahoma, Tennessee. At one of them the angry keeper sat out a bottle with a lighted fuse attached to it. The ladies fell back only twenty feet, keeping up the service while they awaited the expected explosion. It was only a ruse of the besieged. At another saloon the keeper brought out all his chairs for the ladies to use, and otherwise treated them kindly.

County Courts.

The Warrenton Clipper is publishing many telling facts and figures in relation to these institutions. As far as heard from, they are a success wherever they have been established under the law that sprang from Senator Reese's judicial mind.

In the Morgan County Court, a saving of $2,647 has accrued to the parties of 215 suits commenced in the course of the last six months. Fines to the amount of $303 have been imposed in the same length of time, about one-third of which has been collected and paid into the county treasury.

Clarke county pays its county Judge $1,600 a year, and the last grand jury unqualifiedly endorsed his court. The roads, they say, are worked far better; the court diminishes the jury and jail fees, and is a convenience to the public; and as to fines, it has already collected seven-tenths of the Judge's salary.

Congressional Privileges.

A year or two ago a law added forty-six members to the House of Representatives. Each member, as is well known, is allowed to nominate a candidate for a West Point Cadetship. The forty-six new members were hardly seated before they demanded the privileges enjoyed by their colleagues in that respect; and the request, it is conceded, must be granted. That is, Congressmen, who are at once the judges and the interested parties, say it must be granted. It would be invidous, they say, to decide who should and who should not have the power of nomination besides. would it not be a discrimination in favor of the East against the West? Of course, it would. So forty-six more young men are to be educated at an expense of $8,000 each; although the army is glutted with officers, and is to be reduced at that. The addition is a discrimination against the tax-payers in favor of the forty-six Congressmen. And yet these are the days of retrenchment!

This distribution gives the distilleries as follows:

[illegible] Valley	12
6 to 9 Valley	31
Shenandoah Valley	31
Western Reserve	8
Middle and Eastern	54

Of the above fourteen million gallons are consumed within the State.

Georgia Credit Abroad.

Yesterday's mail brought us, from over sea, the first report of the "Council of the Corporation of Foreign Bondholders." The objects of the institution are defined to be the "vindication and protection of the rights and interests of the holders of foreign bonds and the maintainence of the public credit of Foreign Governments, by the propagation of sound doctrines with respect to the punctual fulfilment of their financial engagements, especially towards foreign creditors." The report before us relates to the chief borrowing communities of the earth—Egypt, Liberia, Japan, Morocco, Mexico, and so on through the long list of impecunious States. The Southern States of this country are not touched up with a loving hand. Georgia is let down comparatively easy, in these words:

The condition of financial affairs affecting this State has long been unfavorable; but as few English holders are afflicted, the action of the Council has not been invoked, and has been limited to general representations in relation to the maintenance of the public credit.

The Corn Question in Southwestern Georgia.

The Macon Telegraph and Messenger, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, and Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel have a fondness for seizing and publishing every slander of Southwestern Georgia that appears in print. They seem to prefer to publish statements detrimental to the general interests of this section, rather than the repeated, persistent, authorized and truthful utterances of the respectable journals and recognized mediums of this section upon the crop question, and as to the general condition of the planting interests. Two weeks ago we made mention of the fact that Southwestern Georgia had corn to sell, and proudly insisted that our people were in a better condition financially and agriculturally than for several years. Two days thereafter, a slanderous statement appeared to the effect that "corn was never known to be so scarce in this section," that "many people were scouring the county in vain for corn," and that "the stock of the country was dying up from starvation." The truth, which appeared in the Albany News, was contemptuously ignored by the papers mentioned, and the slanderous paragraph was recoined, hurried into their columns and sent out as a reliable report from Southwestern Georgia.—Albany News.

So far as the Telegraph and Messenger is concerned, this charge of having "a fondness for seizing and publishing every slander of Southwestern Georgia that appears in print," is false. Our information as to the scarcity of corn in that section came from the Albany Central City, which, so far as we know to the contrary, is quite as "respectable" a journal as the Albany News.

We are glad to learn from the News that home-raised "corn is selling in this city at $1 05@1 10. Corn is offered in large quantities by planters of Mitchell county to merchants of this city, at 85 cents. Corn is advertised for sale in Dougherty, and there are no purchasers. There are 15,000 to 20,000 bushels in Dougherty for sale. Worth county is in a healthy condition, and has plenty to carry her to the next harvest. Lee is selling corn and meal at $1 per bushel and less. Calhoun and Early have a surplus, and would gladly ship to this point at $1 per bushel."—Macon Telegraph

The sheriff, Coroner, Marshal and a posse of citizens went to the place expecting to find a suicide or murder, and pulled up a box full of clay. The bad boys who got up the joke can't be found.—Sun and Enquirer.

BLAKELY.

It is reported that a man named Ourie was shot and killed by a Mr. McCann on Saturday last, in Webster county, the difficulty originating from a game of cards.

DEATHS.

Mrs. C. W. C. Wright died at the residence of her son in Griffin, on Sunday night.

Southern Notes.

The first 68 miles of the Columbus (Miss.), Fayette and Decatur Railroad are about to be placed under contract.

The stockholders' meeting of the Fredericksburg and Gordonsville (Va.) Railroad has passed a resolution authorizing the Board of Directors to contract for the completion of the road, and then adjourned sine die.

Good fishing will be enjoyed at Harper's Ferry this year. Black bass, salmon and trout abound there. A fine speckled trout was caught a few days since. This is the first since that fish was put in the Potomac.

Fishermen say they have never known shad so abundant in the St. John's, and frequently take from 4,000 to 5,000 a day. The supply of ice has been reduced quite low for some days.

The forthcoming narrative by General Joseph E. Johnston, of his campaigns, is now ready for distribution, and will be issued next week. A large edition has already been sold. The volume makes 650 pages, illustrated with maps and portraits.

Colonel Robert Tyler, late editor of the Montgomery Advertiser, has become the chief editor of the Morning News, a very interesting and spicy paper before, and which will be much improved by his solid and vigorous editorials.

There was an outrageous scene in the House of Representatives last evening, which resulted among other things in the expulsion of two members. The particulars we have not learnt. When will this end?—Columbia Union-Herald of the 13th.

Strawberries from up the St. John's are beginning to make their appearance in Jacksonville, Florida, in quantities sufficient to justify their shipment to Northern cities, where they bring enormous prices. The fruit is packed in one of Alligretti's refrigerators, which preserves them in excellent condition.

A new channel has recently been opened through the bar at the mouth of the St. Johns river. It is short, straight and of good width, following the line of beach and opening to the South. Vessels drawing eleven and a half feet of water have been taken through the new channel, which is steadily improving, and will eventually be, if not already, the main channel.

Over two hundred Northern clergymen, of all denominations, are spending the winter in different parts of Florida, a great many being at Jacksonville. The nobility of Great Britain are also well represented in the State by Sir George Gore, Viscount Parker and the Earl of Dunraven. The former is there on a hunting excursion, and has any number of horses, dogs, servants and fire-arms.

Greenville, Tenn., American: "One day since the crusade began here in our town, the ladies saw an employee of the E. T., Va. and Ga. R. R. going to the groggery for his dram. He passed in, and returned to the train. It now comes from a reliable source that Captain Jaques, hearing that a certain man was boasting about the shops of Knoxville that he had braved the public sentiment and ladies of Greenville and got his dram, sent for the man aforesaid, and settled with him, saying, 'I have no further use for you.'"

Fat beeves are sold at Houston, Texas, for three cents a pound, net, and the largest portion of the cattle are slaughtered there merely for their hides and tallow. The hide is removed in a unique fashion. The animal is knocked down, the skin cut around with a knife, a horse is hitched to the edge of the hide, and in a minute it is whipped off; and the whole carcass thrown into an immense steam cauldron. It is boiled into a seething mass, and the fat skimmed off. This is poured into hogsheads, and the bones and flesh are thrown out. About 600 animals are boiled per day at Fulton, meat enough being thus wasted to keep a good portion of New York city suppliud.

The Ocala, Fla., Banner says Mr. John B. Groves, the gentleman sent out to this country some time since by Messrs. Powers & Weightman, druggists, Philadelphia, to make a test of extracting the juice of sour oranges and converting it into citric acid, will soon furnish us with a report of his operations. He is very much pleased with his success and believes there is as much money to be made on sour groves as on sweet ones, and with but a small outlay of capital. His report will furnish some valuable information, and already some of our citizens have embarked in this new enterprise.

Application for pardon is made by citizens of Thomasville, North Carolina, for a colored man now in the penitentiary for stealing, who got there under the following singular circumstances, as related by the Raleigh Examiner: Some negroes from Norfolk came to Thomasville, getting staves, and they "conjured" this boy into the theft. They told him they could give him a receipt for stealing anything he wanted and it never would be found out. To kill a black cat and bake it in an oven, and then get a bone from its body and carry it in his pocket and he might steal what he pleased and still be as free as a bird. This boy was simple enough to follow out the instructions to the letter, and had the "bone" in his pocket when he stole the meat from the store of Messrs. Lambeth Bros.

The Brooklyn Church War.

Rev. Dr. Edward Beecher comes to the rescue of his brother, Henry Ward, in the ecclesiastical emeute now agitating the Congregational Church, East. As the dispatches inform us, the former uses strong language against the anti-Plymouth party, showing that the controversy has assumed an aspect of more than bitterness. The Plymouth Church pastor is fully as outspoken against what he calls the inquisitive intermeddling of outsiders. At the close of a prayer-meeting, the other evening, he took the floor and expressed himself in language just a bit tinged with bitterness. He was very sarcastic at the expense of the church calling this council, virtually arraigning them before the tribunal of public opinion for false pretenses, malevolence, discourtesy and trickery. "We are not only excluded," he said, "from this council that comes to deliberate on this church and its affairs, but we are asked at the last moment to come there as a committee to furnish whatever they are deficient in, in the knowledge of either the complainants or of the council itself, and it is in their power to invite us in such a way as that we shall have one weeks' notice, but without any power to consider what we shall do. I must say that, while once I would have as soon thought of cutting off my hand as that such a trick could be done, I am sorry to say now that I firmly believe that just a trick may be played on us." Amidst laughter and "great applause," he closed his speech, as follows:

If that council is convened, and will confine itself simply to the action of the Plymouth Church, one of two things is sure —they will sustain us or cut their own heads off. It is not a question about the position of Plymouth Church—it is a question whether the council is going to sink or not. It is a question whether a council called to meddle with a case such as ours is a fit thing; and if the council attempts to put us in limbo, they will put themselves there. They cannot live, and, by the help of God, they shall not live.

It is evident that the Beecher blood is up this time, and we are not a little curious to see how the strange church muddle is going to end.—Nashville Banner.

INTERFERANDS.

What the Pope Says on the Subject.

From the Catholic Review.]

At the last convention of the Massachusetts State Catholic Temperance Union, an exceedingly filial address to the Holy Father was prepared on behalf of the convention by the committee, Messrs. P. J. Flatley, of Boston; J. W. Dumphy, of Boston, and J. C. Cestair, of Westfield. The following important letter has been received in reply:

Beloved Children, Health and Apostolic Benediction:

We have heard, beloved children, with great joy, not only that your State Union had met in Convention, but that your sister unions also had taken counsel together, as to the most effectual method of preventing the evils that flow from intemperance

DEATH, DISEASE AND MISERY.

Brandy taken, the source, mortality is attested; neglect and contempt of divine things is gradually superinduced, and when is jeopardized, the family is reduced to want and its members torn asunder, at last behind half gives way, for the man who loves wine and feasting will be poor, and they who give way to drinking will be consumed.

In your zeal, consequently, to abolish this disreputable and promiscuous vice, you not only struggle against one vice, but, in your efforts to stem the numberless evils flowing from this source, you also advance the interests of your religion, promote the welfare of your country. And should you, with God's grace, prosecute the movement to success, you will call down manifold blessings on your own people. For the same St. Augustine observes, "Sobriety is the mother of all virtues. It puts to flight sin and crime, shuns the danger, is faithful to duty and rules over the home and family with care and moderation."

We exhort you, therefore, for the true welfare of your country, to vigorously urge onward the total abstinence movement, under the guidance of the church. Thus will you, beyond all contradiction, deserve well of God, of the church and of your fellow men. We most cordially wish you the largest measure of success and the happiest results to your labors, and in token thereof, we most lovingly impart to you, beloved children, and to all those who will engage in the same work with you, the apostolic benediction.

AMERICA'S COMING PRIMA DONNA.

Miss Violetta Colville.

From the St. Louis Republican.]

No prima donna since Sontag and Malibran has made the progress in musical training and effect before the critical public of Italy that Miss Colville has. Of her performance of "Lucia" recently at Verona, Italy, "La Rivista" says: "Lucia to the stars! In the part of the title role the prima donna Colville was sublime! It would be impossible to phrase with greater elegance, to infuse more touching and profound expression in this very difficult role."

The last mail brings the following to her father, who is at present in St. Louis:

"L'Arena" says:

Last evening "Dinorah" was given with an entire different company, with the exception of the brave prima donna, La Signora Violetta Colville, who was welcome back in this difficult role by an outburst of genuine and enthusiastic applause when she entered on the scene. The music of the author of "Robert le Diable" has a curious effect upon the ears which have just listened to that of Donizetti and Pouchielli, and that of "Dinorah" speaks all languages, and describes the most opposite sensations, and passion the most contrary; the laughable tones of a stupid country clown; the sweet pastoral music of Arcadian shepherds and shepherdesses; the mysterious intonations of the treasure seeker, and lastly, the touching accents of the innocent maid gone mad from the supposed abandonment of her lover. In this unique opera the master has produced music the most original, and at times rising to sublimity. The success last evening was spontaneous and complete.

The first honors are due to La Signorina Colville. In the role of Dinorah her delicious voice, agile, vibrating, colors, if one may use the word, in an admirable manner, all the many varied expressions of this most original character. And if, at times, where emotion conquers her, you hear an occasional accent which tells of foreign birth, you forget it in the intense feeling she inspires. In the last act, where Dinorah recovers her reason, he must indeed be a stoic whose heart is not moved at her tender, simple, yet sublime rendering; and we have seen tears in the eyes of not only women but strong men during this touching scene. La Signora Colville is a conscientious actress as well as singer, and sustains her roles with great dramatic effect; a talent as rare as desirable, and for Donizetti, especially, a most precious requisite.

"L'Adige" says: "In the catastrophe sustained by the first production of "Dinorah," some five weeks ago, La Signorina Violetta Colville was the only artist who was left triumphant on the field of battle. Since then she has proved to our public that they were right in their approval of her first efforts, made under such dreadful disadvantages. Her recent successes in the music of Donizetti have made her the darling of the Veronese public. La Colville is an artist of the highest intelligence and the most finished style; and last evening in the second edition of "Dinorah" she achieved a crowning triumph. We would advise her never to abandon this style of music—so well adapted to her voice and her excellent school. And this is no small compliment we pay to this young lady; for the music of Meyerbeer, and this "Dinorah" especially, exacts the highest training, the greatest flexibility of voice, and the most acute intelligence, to delineate and to render perfectly this most difficult role, as it was imagined and created by the great master.

The Dinorah of last evening made upon the audience a profound impression. The new tenor and baritone were very successful and the entire opera was received with the most amorous applause. After the first cavatina, La Colville was recalled twice before the public, and four times after the shadow dance. In the last act, her acting is the scene where she slowly recovers her senses, was so touching that many among the audience were moved to tears. After the first act La Colville, Signors Fabbri and Cappelli were called three times before the curtain and then compelled to sing again the terzetto, which closes the act. After the second act there were again three calls for the same artists. Because of this signal success of "Dinorah," the impressario has announced that the season will be extended, and the prices will be raised 33 per cent.

The same mail brings private advices two days later, which recount the ovations paid the young prima donna, on the occasion of her benefit, February 13, 1874, with the presents received.

1. Three monster bouquets from five to twelve feet in circumference.
2. Many smaller bouquets.
3. A crown of laurel leaves, with golden buds, to which was attached broad white silk sash ribbons. On one was embroidered in heavy gold letters, Violetta Colville. On the other Carnivale, 1873-4, Verona.

—Above and below each were violets and leaves embroidered also in gold, and in the centre of each flower is a single fine pearl. The ends of the sash, which are very broad are hung with bullion fringe.

4. A copy of the Barcarola, in front of which is inscribed, "Dedicated to la signorina Violetta Colville, prima donna assoluta, on the occasion of her benefit at Verona, February 13, 1874."

5. A copy of a poem written in her honor, lithographed on heavy card satin paper. The design of the border, which represents a grand bouquet on which are the festoons, V. C., being borne by cupids, was exclusively made expressly to surround the poem. Fifty copies were given to her on her benefit

This Real Value of Well-Known Fertilizers.

Experiment Stations No. 2.

GA. STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY,
ATLANTA, GA., March 4, 1874.

To the Planters of Georgia:

It becomes my duty herewith to report to you the results of the analyses of seven additional commercial fertilizers, as received from the Chemist in the State College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts. As heretofore stated by me the names of the fertilizers were unknown to the Chemist, the analyses being made by number.

The accompanying report of Prof. White gives the following fertilizers the commercial values set opposite their names, to-wit:

The Logan Fertilizer	$44 55 per ton
Hunt, Rankin & Lamar's Home-Made Fertilizer, Formula No. 1	27 36 " "
Hunt, Rankin & Lamar's Home-Made Fertilizer, Formula No. 2	17 04 " "
E. Frank Coe's Ammoniated Bone Superphosphate	54 63 " "
Peruvian guano (Guanape)	99 09 " "
Peruvian guano (Chincha)	46 27 " "
Langdale guano	36 26 " "

The most astounding revelation here made is the value at which the Peruvian (Chincha) guano is placed. This, as is well known, has always furnished the standard of values for fertilizers. But when it is seen, by reference to the analysis, that this sample (and it was taken with the greatest care from several sacks in a lot of six thousand tons) obtained 21 53 per cent. of sand, the valuation set upon it is no longer a matter of surprise.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,
MALOLM JOHNSTON, Secretary.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA,
LABORATORY OF APPLIED CHEMISTRY,

The cavities of the heart were dilated, especially the lower third of the left ventricle. The walls of this ventricle were generally thinner than usual, especially so at a point about an inch and a half from the apex and over a space of two-thirds of an inch in diameter. FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.—Bishop Pierce preached in the First Methodist Church Sunday morning. Despite the inclement character of the weather there was a fair congregation assembled. It represents Massachusetts standing before the solid, stubbed smoking occupant of the White House, and remonstrating, to no purpose, against his tendency to cultivate the rowdy element of the country. Cockeyed Butler appears at the summit of power, distributing offices and dollars. Massachusetts doesn't like Per-simmons in her tea. This number also contains a double-page picture of Speer's novel project for an endless railway train. Its illustrations are all good, and its literary and political articles unexceptionable.

The Commissioner's Court.

Yesterday morning, Commissioner W. B. Smith, commenced the preliminary trials of the prisoners recently brought here from Campbell county.

Mr. George Mallory, who was charged with running an illicit distillery, was committed to jail. Later in the day he went before the United States District Court, plead guilty, and was sentenced, as will be seen elsewhere.

The case against his son Joel Mallory, for working in an illicit distillery was dismissed, the defendant being under thirteen years of age, and therefore not penally liable. Marshall DeGraffenried, Esq., represented the defense in these cases.

The trials of the remaining prisoners will be resumed to-day.

The Justice's Courts.

George Satterfield and Sam Ridgeway, the colored gentlemen who were arrested Saturday by Officer Flynn, of the police, for making a raid on the money drawer of Mr S D Chaney, had a hearing yesterday before Justice E R Sasseen. The prosecution swore that they got $18. The prisoners confessed their guilt, and were committed to jail to await the City Court.

A late magistrate also tried a negro boy named Ben Harmon. He was charged with breaking into a trunk and stealing $4 from the lady of the house where he was employed. He also virtually admitted his guilt, and was sent to jail.

The City Court.

This Court was to have assembled again on yesterday, but had to be adjourned on account of the sickness of Judge Cowart. A note was received by the Clerk, stating that he was too unwell to attend to any business, and adjourning the Court until the first Monday in April.

We regret to learn of his Honor's indisposition, and hope he will be out in a few days.

Station House Report

ANOTHER SMALL THIEF.

Officer W L. Jones arrested yesterday a negro lad apparently some 14 or 15 years of age, named Edward Waters, for stealing. Edward was employed by a Mrs. Powers, who lives on Decatur street and last week took occasion of a propitious moment, to appropriate a lot of jewelry belonging to her. Among the things thus stolen are a valuable gold ring set with pearls and a gold cross. This property fortunately has been recovered. The boy spent last night in the guard house, and will be held until Judge Cowart is ready to send him to the chain gang.

There were eight city arrests for the usual offences, including one deserter.

ESCAPED.

About three o'clock Sunday morning there occurred the first escape from the Station House. The prisoner's name was Phil. Gibbs, and he was held under a charge of breaking into some cars on the Georgia Railroad last week and stealing a quantity of meat. The case against Phil. was pretty clear, as some two or three hundred pounds of the stolen meat was found in his house. Phil. is a shrewd darky, and determined not to stand trial if there was any convenient way of avoiding it.

HOW HE MANAGED IT.

He was locked up in Cell No. 2, and during the fore part of Sunday night several prisoners charged with city offenses were placed in there with him. In some way he had secreted a hair pin on his person, and with this he removed the mortar from around a brick just back of the door of his cell and finally succeeded in pulling out the brick itself. The job probably occupied him a couple of hours. He then prized back the iron door until the bolt slipped from the socket and Phil walked forth into the passage. He then took a position just back of the door leading into the office. Policeman Hutchins was on duty, and hearing a noise he opened this door and finding cell No 2 open, walked to it to see what was the matter. The instant the officer passed him Phil made a dart through the door and was gone like lightning, and is probably going now.

None of the other prisoners attempted to get out. The escape was well planned, and took the officer completely by surprise. Under the circumstances no blame could be attached to him.

The doors to these cells should be set in iron frames. Other prisoners can easily get out in the way Phil did and escape. We would call attention of Council to this matter.

A RICH HAUL.

Eighteen Bolts of Stolen Goods Recovered.

Yesterday afternoon Lieutenant Tim Murphy and Officers W. L. Jones and John Fears made a big capture of stolen goods. The information which put them upon the track was probably furnished by a negro prisoner under arrest in the guard house for another offense. The officers went and got the negro and [illegible] the residence of Gen. L. J. Gartrell and found buried there eighteen bolts of Roswell Mills shirting. The goods were divided up into several packages and buried in different places.

These packages were wrapped up in old sacks and pieces of carpet. The bolts would average from 40 to 41 yards a piece, making over 700 yards in all. The owners of the garden got news of the capture [illegible] search and made themselves very scarce, so that no arrests have been made as yet. Most of the goods were found wet and soiled. The eighteen bolts were removed to the Station House where they now are. The best theory to account for these we have heard is that they were recently stolen from some cars on the Air-Line road. Anyhow they are awaiting a claimant.

Interesting Results of the Revival.

A scene of great interest to the congregation occurred at the First Presbyterian Church last Sabbath. The pastor announced the names of thirty persons happily converted during the past few weeks, who had been examined and received by the Session as members of the Church. They came forward and formed a semi-circle in front of the pulpit, when the ordinance of baptism was administered to four of the number, and all publicly professed their faith in Christ. These are the first fruits of the revival now in progress in that Church.

A sermon was preached by Rev. G. A. Caldwell, after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered, the pastor conducting this service with the aid of Rev. Dr. Nall.

The whole number of conversions thus far is estimated to be about forty. There is no abatement, but rather an increase of interest among the people. This was evidenced on Saturday night, when a considerable number of new inquirers came forward. The services are to be continued. There will be a daily prayer meeting in the church from 9 to 10 o'clock—exactly one hour. Persons of all classes, both church members and those that are not, are invited to attend. There will be preaching every night at 7½ o'clock.

Dr. Nall, after nearly four weeks' gratuitous labor, has left, but Rev. Mr. Caldwell will continue to preach, and assist in carrying on the good work.

NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL CONGRESS.—The National Agricultural Congress will meet in Atlanta on the 2d Wednesday in May next. Vice President O. H. Jones is pushing matters vigorously to make it a grand success. We learn that the attendance from the North and West will be large. This is an important meeting, and we doubt not the United Executive of the State and our city government will do all in their power to make the occasion a memorable one.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A NEGRO.

Inquest Held on the Body.

On last Sunday morning the colored man Moore, who runs a negro hotel in the Willingham Building, received a sick negro boy into his house who reached Atlanta that day from Beaufort, South Carolina. The boy was in the last stages of disease, and died shortly after he had been carried to the hotel. Moore could gather very little information from him. He said that he had been working for the past two years in the employ of a white man near Beaufort, who put him on the cars and sent him here.

Also that he had a mother living in this place, but where he did not know. He did not give his own name. After the death Coroner Kile was notified, who proceeded to empannel a jury with J. R. W. Johnson as foreman, and held an inquest. The body exhibited signs of great emaciation and disease, but nothing that could lead to the suspicion that there had been any foul play. The jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from causes unknown to them, and adjourned.

ON 'CHANGE.—The meeting on 'Change yesterday again discussed at length the subject of railroads. The roads discussed were narrow-gauge roads as follows: From Atlanta to Monticello, in Jasper county, via McDonough, Henry county; one from Hogansville, on the Atlanta and West Point Railroad to Greenville, Merriwether county; one from Flowery Branch, on the Air-Line Railroad, to Jefferson, in Jackson county, and one from Toccoa to Carnesville. A letter was received from the Mayor of Jefferson urging the importance of the road to Jefferson. Jackson county shipped 8,000 bales of cotton this season. The members of the Board have determined to continue the discussion of these important enterprises.

Merriwether has a population of 13,755; 1,171 white and 1,230 colored polls; has 2,367 hands employed between 12 and 60 years of age; value of improved land, $1,159,158; of wild land, $3,358; value of products, $1,479,290; in 1870 made 2,220 bales of cotton, 27,654 bushels sweet potatoes, 83,420 pounds of butter, and 5,949 pounds of wool, in addition to corn, etc.

Jackson county has a population of 11,181; 1,293 white and 581 colored polls; employs 1,218 hands between 12 and 65 years; improved land valued at $818 255; value of farm products, $712,444; in 1870 made 1,859 bales of cotton; 19,565 bushels sweet potatoes, and 56,118 pounds of butter. In 1873 made over 3,000 bales of cotton.

Jasper county has a population of 10,489; 688 white 9?9 colored polls; employs 1,741 hands between 12 and 65 years; value of improved land $338,140; value farm products $884,708; in 1870 made 3,937 bales of cotton, 15,453 bushels of sweet potates and ?099 pounds of butter.

20,000 bales of cotton, 60,000 bushels sweet potatoes, and 225,000 pounds of butter, to say nothing of anything else, will be worth making an effort for.

P. J. KENNY,
Chairman Committee Arrangements.

A CLUB OF GALLANTS.—A number of highly respectable and strictly moral young gentlemen of this city have organized an association, to be known as the "Gallant Club," the object of which is to furnish young ladies who have no regular beau, an escort to church, concerts, lectures and places of amusement. All members have to undergo a rigid examination as to character before they are admitted, and they are obligated to obey all orders of the executive committee. Any lady wishing an escort has only to apply to the President of the Society, naming the evening, and a young man is detailed for the purpose. As soon as a young man becomes engaged he must withdraw from the organization. It is the highest degree of the bachelor's order. The first degree is the "Slipper Club;" the second degree the "Panic Club," and the third or superlative degree the "Gallant's Club."

PERSONAL.—Rev. Robert Irvine, D.D., the orator for to-day, reached here last night.

Mr. Joseph M. Brown, who has been at Cambridge, Massachusetts, for some time has returned home on account of an opthalmic complaint.

A. B. Wrenn has removed from Florida.

Colonel C. M Jones, of Carroll county, is now on a visit to old DeKalb.

Charles A. Childs, Esq., is convalescing, we are pleased to announce.

ELSAS, MAY & CO.—A few years ago the above firm began business in this city, on a small scale, in the old market house, corner of Pryor and Mitchell streets. Gradually they developed a large trade, which has augmented with every recurring year. They have erected a handsome two-story brick store at the corner, besides enlarging the old market house, in order to keep pace with their business. If you want anything whatever, call on Elsas, May & Co., and you are likely to find it. More especially if you desire cheap paper. Give them a call.

MERIWETHER TRADE.—Atlanta is agitating the building of a narrow gauge road to Greenville, 70 miles, to secure the Meriwether trade, which Columbus can secure by laying down 20 second ten miles of road already built. Griffin is also trying to work up a road in the same direction. There is no better country in Western Georgia, and its business will handsomely remunerate the city whose enterprise first secures rail connection with it.—Columbus Sun and Enquirer.

J. F. & J. G. MIDDLETON.—Attention is called to the card of J. F. & J. G. Middleton, Merchandize Brokers and Cotton Buyers, No. 10 Whitehall street. They represent first class houses in the South and West for meats, flour, grain, coffee, sugar and molasses. Drop in and see them.

We learn that a movement is projected of holding a convention here in May or June of all persons in the State favoring the non-sectarian religious instruction of the young. It is said that some of the ablest men in the State favor it.

WINTER WHEAT FLOUR.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Winter Wheat Flour by Stewart, Austin & Co. Their TIP Brand is very justly popular. It is the Favorite Flour with Females because of its excellent qualities.

GOV. SMITH.—We are frequently asked what hours in the day are best for calling upon the Governor. We would state for the benefit of our readers that the hours of Governor visits for receiving visitors are from 10 to 1½ o'clock. The remainder of the day is devoted by him to office business.

DEKALB SUPERIOR COURT.—DeKalb Superior Court began its session yesterday. The day was taken up in the trial of the "Clowers vs. Lee" case.

A RICH HAUL.

Eighteen Bolts of Stolen Goods Recovered.

Yesterday afternoon Lieutenant Tim Murphy and Officers W. L. Jones and John Fears made a big capture of stolen goods. The information which put them upon the track was probably furnished by a negro prisoner under arrest in the guard house for another offense. The officers went and got the negro and [illegible] the residence of Gen. L. J. Gartrell and found buried there eighteen bolts of Roswell Mills shirting. The goods were divided up into several packages and buried in different places.

These packages were wrapped up in old sacks and pieces of carpet. The bolts would average from 40 to 41 yards a piece, making over 700 yards in all. The owners of the garden got news of the capture [illegible] search and made themselves very scarce, so that no arrests have been made as yet. Most of the goods were found wet and soiled. The eighteen bolts were removed to the Station House where they now are. The best theory to account for these we have heard is that they were recently stolen from some cars on the Air-Line road. Anyhow they are awaiting a claimant.

Nervous Debility.

A depressed, irritable state of mind; a weak, nervous, exhausted feeling; nocnergy or animation; confused head, weak memory, often with debilitating, involuntary discharges. The consequence of excesses, mental overwork or indiscretions. This Nervous Debility finds a sovereign cure in HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFIC, No. 28. It tones up the system, arrests discharges, dispels the mental gloom and despondency, and rejuvenates the entire system. It is perfectly harmless and always efficient. Price $5, for a package of five boxes and a large $3 vial of powder, which is important in old, serious cases; or $1 per single box. Sold by all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Address Humphreys' Specific Homeopathic Medicine Co., No. 562 Broadway, N. Y.

THE SINKING SAVED.—The combination of tonic, alterative and stimulating properties in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, especially adapts that famous specific to the cure of chronic forms of disease, when the strong influence of a long protracted morbid habit is to be surmounted. In chronic dyspepsia, and liver complaint, and in chronic constipation and other obstinate diseases, it is beyond all comparison the best remedy that can be taken. As a means of restoring the strength and vital energy of persons who are sinking under the debilitating effects of painful disorders, this standard vegetable invigorant is confessedly unequalled. The permanent tonics included in the preparation are associated with a diffusible stimulant absolutely pure, and the tendency of these elements is modified by the presence of alterative ingredients slower in their operation and capable of producing more lasting local and general effects. For feeble convalescents and in all phases of debility, it is the best as well as the most agreeable of restoratives.

Jackson's Magic Balsam
THE
IS KEPT IN EVERY FAMILY
WOULD BE FOUND EQUAL TO Any Emergency.

THE PROOF:

ATLANTA, Ga., November 14, 1873.

F. Von Abbina, Esq., Brunswille, Ga.:

I thank for the great service you have done me by this outburst of gratitude for your invaluable medicine, and thanks to you for placing it within my reach. Let me tell you about it: To-night, after supper, I was attacked with a very acute pain in my right side. I had felt it coming on for several days, but it did not reach a focus until to-night, and of all intense pains it was the worst I ever had. Having failed to get relief before for different ailments and found it equal to any emergency, I went down suffering most excruciating pain as I went along, and paid my last quarter for a small bottle of Jackson's Magic Balsam. It was the greatest difficulty I reached home. The medicine was applied to the hurting place, and in a few minutes after the application, I took my pencil, and while I scribble these lines to you the pain has disappeared, leaving me as happy as the usual sun flower, and another dose of the Magic Truck in the bottle ready for any pain that might arise. I only wish you as much good luck as your Balsam is efficious, and that is a great deal.

Yours truly,
